OAK BROOK, Ill. — Consulting-Specifying Engineer has announced the recipients of the 2017 40 Under 40 award. This award is given to 40 nonresidential building industry professionals age 40 and younger who stand out in a variety of personal and professional aspects in their lives. To read a profile of each winner, visit www.csemag.com/40under40.

Candidates were nominated by a professional colleague or mentor and judged based on nine areas including their commitment to excellence in their academic, professional, personal, and community involvement. In the May edition and online, Consulting-Specifying Engineer honored each of these young professionals, highlighting traits that lead him/her to continued success, recent professional projects, and personal achievements. Winners will be presented with their award at a ceremony in Chicago on Tuesday, Oct. 3.

“This year’s 40 Under 40 winners are superb in so many ways,” said Amara Rozgus, Editor-in-Chief of Consulting-Specifying Engineer. “Now in its tenth year, the program has expanded to honor the best of the best in the industry.”
