

CONSULTING - SPECIFYING engineer®

May 14, 2013

OAK BROOK, Ill. — Consulting-Specifying Engineer has announced the recipients of the 2013 40 Under 40 award. This award is given to 40 building industry professionals age 40 and younger who stand out in all aspects of their lives. To read a profile of each winner, visit www.csemag.com/40under40.

Candidates were nominated by a professional colleague or mentor and judged based on commitment to excellence in their academic, professional, personal, and community involvement. The May issue of Consulting-Specifying Engineer magazine profiles each young professional, highlighting traits that lead him/her to continued success, recent professional projects, and personal achievements.

"It is my great pleasure to recognize these 40 young leaders from the building and engineering industries," said Amara Rozgus, Editor-in-Chief of Consulting-Specifying Engineer. "Now in its sixth year, the competition is becoming more intense. Each winner truly deserves this award. Through project management, finding unique engineering solutions, volunteering, mentoring, and much more, these winners are guiding the building and engineering community."
