

CONSULTING - SPECIFYING engineer®

May 14, 2012

OAK BROOK, Ill. — Consulting-Specifying Engineer has announced the recipients of the 2012 40 Under 40 award. This award is given to 40 building industry professionals age 40 and younger who stand out in all aspects of their lives. To read a profile of each winner, visit <http://www.csemag.com/40under40>.

Candidates were nominated by a professional colleague or mentor and judged based on commitment to excellence in their academic, professional, personal, and community involvement. The May issue of Consulting-Specifying Engineer magazine profiles each young professional, highlighting traits that lead him/her to continued success, recent professional projects, and personal achievements.

"It is an honor to recognize these young leaders of the building and engineering industries," said Amara Rozgus, Editor-in-Chief of Consulting-Specifying Engineer. "They earned this award by working and playing hard while still making time for industry and charity volunteering. Through project management, research, mentoring, and much more, these winners are guiding the building and engineering sciences toward sustainability and success."
